THE NEW College Avenue Presbyterian Church

(Now under Construction)

The construction of the above building was began in June 1926 under the supervision of the architect, L. B. Pendleton of St. Louis, Mo. The building is entirely of stone with dressed stone trimmings. Art glass and memorial windows are in all of main building. The contract price is $84,500.00 exclusive of heating, and the work is being done by the Modern Systems Construction Co. of Alton. The seating capacity including the balcony is 600 with a main banquet hall to seat 250 people at tables. It contains a modern Sunday School department system with 21 class rooms to care in comfort for over six hundred pupils. When the building is fully completed and furnished, the estimated value of the whole property is $100,000.00.

Our Old Building

(The Upper Alton Presbyterian Church)

The following taken from Norton's "History of Presbyterian Church in State of Illinois" gives age of the above building. The history was compiled in 1879. Quoting "The first Church edifice was erected in 1836 and occupied the same site as the present one. Previous to that the Church worshipped in what was known as the "Brick School House." The first Church edifice was burned on February 10, 1858. The present building was commenced soon after, but for lack of funds went on but slowly. It was finally finished, and dedicated in November 15, 1865." It was then a plain frame building with stove heating. In later years the stoves gave way to furnace heat, the plain windows to leaded glass. A basement was later dug, and two small rooms added to the front. Finally a pipe organ was installed in a small addition to the rear, and later remodeled to be the organ recently dismantled.—J. N. M.

Upper Alton

Brief Historical Sketch of Church and Pastors

From Norton's "Centennial History of Madison County" published in 1912 the following information is compiled. The first Presbyterian Church in Alton was organized June 9, 1821. It was organized in a log school house in Upper Alton. It had a membership of eight but never had a regular pastor. On account of members moving away the Church was consolidated with the Edwardsville Presbyterian Church in 1826. The second organization was formed by Rev. Thos. Lippincott on June 9, 1831. This Church was organized at the home of Deacon Enoch Long, corner of Main and College Ave. (the present site of the Burnap residence). The public services were held in the Upper Alton brick school house which was also located near this same corner. This organization was later moved to worship in a frame building on Second St. between Market and Alby. (This Church continues as the First Presbyterian Church of Alton).

In December, 1836, Elder Long and nineteen others were dismissed from the above Church to organize the Upper Alton Presbyterian Church. The Church was officially organized January 8, 1837 with Rev. E. P. Lovejoy as supply pastor, and continuing until his tragic death on November 7 of same year. On November 15 of the same year Rev. Chas. G. Selleck was installed pastor of the Church. In June 1838 a union was formed with a congregational Church which gave a total membership of 49. Rev. Mr. Selleck continued as pastor until October 1841. He was followed by Rev. Hubbel Loomis, who was pastor until May 1843. Rev. Loomis came from the Baptist faith, but later went back to the Baptist Church. (Loomis Hall in Shurtleff College is named after him). Rev. Loomis was followed in the Church by Rev. H. B. Whittaker who acted as supply pastor until his death in September 1844. In 1845 came Rev. Lemusel Foster, who was pastor until 1847. He was followed by Rev. T. B. Hurlbut who acted as supply pastor 1847 to 1852. Rev. Hurlbut was at one time associate editor of "The Alton Observer." He was followed by an itinerant pastor, Rev. William Barnes who continued until 1858 or 1859. Then came the Rev. William R. Adams, who was also principal of the Alton High School. Rev. Adams continued as supply pastor until September 1, 1867. At this time after the war the Church was placed under the Mission Board and was supplied by the Rev. Lucius I. Root, until about the year 1872 when he was followed by the Rev. Robert Rudd who labored for about three years as a itinerant pastor. About the year 1875 came the Rev. John Huston also as itinerant pastor. He was followed some time later by the Rev. Samuel B. Taggart who served as itinerant and supply pastor until about 1883 or 1884. In May 1885 the Rev. C. M. Brown, then a student at Blackburn College, began conducting services and continued until a call was made out for the services of Rev. D. M. Hazlett on November 13, 1888. He served until April 1890. He was followed by the Rev.

Walter H. Bradley who served until December 31, 1910. In May 1912 the Rev. C. N. McManus was called and remained as pastor until December 31, 1917. In March 1918 the Rev. W. T. Hanzsche was called and remained until 1919. In the same year Rev. Lee A. Hanchett came and remained until 1921 when the present pastor took charge. In the fall of 1925 the congregation was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, and at the same time the name of the Church was changed from the Upper Alton Presbyterian Church to the present name of The College Avenue Presbyterian Church.—
